MOSCOW, April 27. N. S.

" WE, ANNE, by the Grace of God, " Empreſs and Sovereign of all Ruſſia, " &c. do hereby declare, That it is well " known to all our faithful Subjects, with " what Inſolence Prince Alexis Dolgorucki " and Prince Iwan his Son behaved themſelves " all the while they were about the Perſon of " our Couſin Peter II. Emperor and Sove- " reign of Ruſſia, of glorious Memory, to " the impairing of his precious Health; par- " ticularly by trying all Manner of Ways, " after his Imperial Majeſty's Arrival at Moſ- " cow, to hinder his conſtant Reſidence in his " Capital, where he might have had an Eye " to the Government of his Empire, promo- " ted the Intereſt of his Subjects of all Ranks, " and applied himſelf to the Affairs of the " Adminiſtration; that taking Advantage of " that Monarch's Youth, they prevailed with " him to leave Moſcow, under Pretence of " enjoying the Pleaſures of the Country, and " to ſpend moſt part of the Year in Places re- " mote from his Capital, to deprive him by " that Means of the Knowledge of Affairs, to " the great Concern of the whole Nation du- " during that Time; that following the Ex- " ample of what Menzikoff had formerly done, " who when he was at the Height of Favour, " made himſelf Maſter of the Perſon of the " Emperor our Couſin of glorious Memory, " and betrothed him to his Daughter; Prince " Alexis, aſſiſted by his Son and his Brother, " did likewiſe ſeduce his Imperial Majeſty in " an Age ſo tender and unfit for Marriage, by " perſuading him to eſpouſe his Daughter Ka- " therine in an odious Manner, without commu- " nicating his Deſign to the Perſons of our " Imperial Family and others, who ought to " have been acquainted therewith, and whom " he ought to have conſulted upon an Affair " of that Importance, as our Predeceſſors al- " ways have done; that they have commit- " ted ſeveral other Crimes, directly contrary " to the known Statutes, and corrupted ſeve- " ral Perſons to gratify their Paſſions; which " we will examin into, and make publick in a " ſhort Time; That moreover they fatigued " his Imperial Majeſty by long Journeys, not " only in the Summer, but alſo during the ſe- " vereſt Cold of Autumn and Winter, to the " Prejudice of his valuable Health, which " they did by theſe Means impair to a " very great Degree; That during his laſt " Sickneſs, and indeed to the laſt Day of his " Life, they concealed the State he was in, " not only from the Miniſters, but alſo from " the Officers and Domeſticks of the Court; " That, in ſhort, Prince Alexis and Prince " Iwan his Son have taken ſeveral Things of " Value out of the Imperial Treaſury, not " only during the Life of the late Emperor " our Couſin, of glorious Memory, but alſo " ſince our Acceſſion to the Throne of Ruſſia, " which they have ſince been obliged to re- " ſtore purſuant to our Command; And as " the ſaid Prince has committed all theſe " Crimes in Concert with his Son Prince Iwan, " and his Brother; and though the ſaid Per- " ſons, by the Conſtitutions of the Empire, " have incurred a ſevere Puniſhment, we con- " tent ourſelf with ordaining, that Prince A- " lexis, his Wife and Children, both Sons " and Daughters, together with his Brother " Prince Sergey, and his Wife and Children, " ſhall go and remain upon ſome of their E- " ſtates remote from this City, whence they " are not to remove without our Order; that " Prince Iwan and Prince Alexander ſhall be " ſent to diſtant Towns in Quality of Wey- " woods; that they ſhall be diveſted of all " their Offices, which they have not merited " by their Services or their Fidelity; and that " they ſhall be degraded from the Orders, " with which they were honoured.

" And in regard Prince Waſili Dolgorucki, " Son of Lucas, has ſeveral Times behaved

" in

" in a criminal Manner towards us and the " Empire; and not having the Fear of God, " or of his terrible Judgments, before his " Eyes, he has, contrary to the Duty of an " honeſt and faithful Subject, given us divers " falſe Accounts, of his own Invention, to " make us ſuſpect ſeveral of our faithful Sub- " jects, as he has already own'd; tho' theſe " Crimes deſerve a ſevere Puniſhment, we " have been pleaſed to extend our Clemency " towards him, and content ourſelf with di- " veſting him of all his Offices and of his Or- " der, and to baniſh him to one of his remote " Eſtates, there to remain under a ſtrong " Guard, and not ſtir from thence without our " Leave. Done at Moſcow, in the Senate, " April 25, 1730. Signed

ANNE.

ROME, April 29. On Sunday laſt Cardinal Conti, after drinking ſome Chocolate, and juſt as he was getting ready to go to the Scrutiny, he was ſuddenly ſeized with an Apoplexy, of which he died in a few Hours, very much regretted by the whole ſacred College. He was Brother to Pope Innocent XIII. promoted to the Dignity of a Cardinal in the Year 1721. The ſame Evening his Corpſe was carried to the Church of St. Mary in Via, his Pariſh Church, from whence after they had ſolemnized his Obſequies, it was tranſported to Poli, to be interred there among his Anceſtors. On Monday Cardinal Porcia went out of the Conclave, finding himſelf very ill of a Retention of Urine; but his Eminence is ſince recovered, and has re-entred. Cardinal Ruffo is ill of a Fever. On Monday the Marquis Monteleon received a Courier from Spain, with Diſpatches from that Court, approving of the Excluſion given by Cardinal Bentivoglio to Cardinal Imperiali. On Wedneſday before the Scrutiny, was read the Bulls for the Election of a Grand Plenipotentiary, in the Room of Cardinal Conti, and Cardinal Petra was elected by a Majority of Voices.

LONDON, May 25.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid.

A Very odd Thing has happened at Granada, the Account of which comes from good Hands, though it is kept as private as poſſible. A Man of a religious Order, or one in ſuch a Habit, came to the Palace there, if it can be called a Palace) and was endeavouring to get into the Queen's Apartment by a private Way; —— being ſtopt by a Centry, he told him he muſt ſee the Queen, for he had Buſineſs of Conſequence to impart to her; but the Centry perſiſting that he had Orders to let no Body paſs that Way, the reverend Father attempted to paſs by Force, which occaſioned his being ſeiz'd and examin'd, when, under his Habit, were found Piſtols, and alſo a Ponyard. The ſaid Father is removed ſomewhere out of the Way, and the Thing is huſh'd up as much as poſſible.

From the Daily Journal.

The following Preſcription of the celebrated Meſſieurs Boerhaave and Oſterdyke, for the Cure of the Gout, has been tried with ſo much Succeſs by a Gentleman who was afflicted with that Diſtemper from the Age of 15 to upwards of 40, and is now, as he hopes, perfectly cured of it, and is returning (with all proper Caution) to his uſual (temperate) Manner of living; and has beſides done ſo much Good to ſeveral others to whom the Salutary Regimen has been communicated, that he thinks he cannot do a more acceptable Service to the Publick, nor make a better Acknowledgment for the Benefit he has received by it, than to publiſh the ſame for the general Good of his Feſlow-creatures: And though he cannot anſwer for it, that it may have the ſame happy Effects on every Conſtitution that it has had with him, yet he doubts not that the Innocence of the Method preſcrib'd, and the diſintereſted Manner in which he offers it to the Publick, will be a ſufficient Juſtification of his good Intentions, and a Recommendation of its Genuineſs and Efficacy, than any Thing he can ſay further on this Subject.

Profeſſor Boerhaave and Oſterdyke's Regimen preſcribed for the GOUT.

THEY are of Opinion that the Gout is not to be cured by any other Means but a Milk-diet, which will in 12 Months Time alter the whole Maſs of Blood; and in order thereto, the following Directions muſt be ſtrictly obſerv'd and follow'd:

I. You muſt not taſte any Liquor only a Mixture of one Third Milk and two Thirds Water, your Milk as new as you can get it, and to drink it as often as you have Occaſion for it, without adding any other to it. A little Tea and Coffee is likewiſe permitted with Milk.

II. In a Morning as ſoon as awake, and the Stomach has made a Digeſtion, you muſt drink eight Ounces of Spring Water, and faſt two Hours after; then eat Milk and Bread, Milk Pottage, or Tea with Milk, with a little Bread and freſh Butter.

III. At Dinner you muſt not eat any Thing but what is made of Barley, Oats, Rice, or Millet Seed, Carrots, Potatoes, Turnips, Spinage, Beans, Peas, &c. You may likewiſe eat Fruit, when full ripe, baked Pears or Apples, Apple-dumplings, but above all, Milk and Biſkeit is very good, but nothing ſalt or ſour, not even a Seville Orange.

IV. At Supper you muſt eat nothing but Milk and Bread.

V. It is neceſſary you go to Bed betimes, even before 9 o' Clock, to accuſtom yourſelf to ſleep much, and uſe yourſelf to it.

VI. Every Morning before you riſe, to have your Feet, Legs, Arms and Hands, well rubbed with pieces of woollen Cloth, for Half an Hour, and the ſame going to Bed. This Article ticle muſt be ſtrictly obſerved, for by this Means the Humours, Knobs and Bunches will be diſſipated, and prevent their fixing in the Joints, by which they become uſeleſs.

VII. You muſt accuſtom yourſelf to Exerciſe, as riding on Horſe-back, wich is beſt, or in a Coach, Chaiſe, &c. the more the better, but take Care of the cold Weather, Winds and Rain.

Laſtly, In caſe a Fit of the Gout ſhould return, and be violent, which they are of Opinion will not, then a little Doſe of Opium, or Laudanum, may be taken to compoſe you; but no oftner than Neceſſity requires. They are all of Opinion, that your Father or Mother having the Gout, is of no Conſequence, if you will reſolve to follow the foregoing Directions ſtrictly.

May 6. They write from Coventry, that laſt Week the Wife of the Rev. Mr. Rider, Vicar of Nuneaton near that City, was ſafely delivered of four Children at a Birth who are all living.

We hear his Majeſty hath, under the Great Seal, granted unto the Right Hon. the Earl of Macclesfield 1200 l. per Ann. for and during his Majeſty's Pleaſure, which his late Majeſty did grant unto his Lordſhip during his ſaid Majeſty's Life.

May 23. The Body of Hugh Norton (often mentioned in this Gazette) that was hanged in Chains laſt Wedneſday 7-Night on Hounſlow Heath, has been ſince ſtolen away from off the Gibbet.

We hear that the double Marriages talked of, between the Royal Families of Great Britain and Pruſſia, will not be brought about this Year.

BOSTON, Auguſt 13. On Saturday laſt the 8th Inſtant, about the middle of the Afternoon we were notified by a Signal from Caſtle William, of the near Approach of his Excellency Governor Belcher, in his Majeſty's Ship the Blandford, (ſtationed for this Place, Capt. Prothero Commander,) which could reach no further that Night than the Mouth or Entrance of the Narrows. Here his Excellency was waited upon, as ſoon as poſſible, by an honourable Committee from the General Aſſembly, with a Number of other Gentlemen, who were all received and entertained with that Nobleneſs and Affability which is natural to the Governor. The uſual Services of the Sabbath were attended by his Excellency at the Caſtle, with decent and religious Solemnity.

At the opening of the following Day, was the Town of Boſton in a voluntary Alarm, preparing for his Excellency's Reception and Entertainment. The Militia both Horſe and Foot were under Arms, and ranged in the Street below the Town-houſe, in martial Order, to welcome their Captain-General. The Turrets and Balcony's were hung with Carpets, and almoſt every Veſſel was blazon'd with a rich Variety of Colours.

Between the Hours of 10 and 11 his Excellency left the Caſtle and embark'd for Town, with a great Number of Boats and Pinnaces to attend him, under a general Diſcharge of the Caſtle Canon.

At length the great Object of our Hopes and ſincere Affection, was received and congratulated at the End of the Long-wharffe, by the Hon. Lieut. Governor and Council, the Judges and Juſtices, and an almoſt numberleſs Multitude of Gentlemen Spectators. Several Standards and Enſigns were erected on the Top of Fort-hill, and at Clark's Wharffe at the North part of the Town, and a Number of Canon planted; which were all handſomely diſcharged at the Arrival of his Excellency, and followed with ſuch Huzza's as inſpired the whole Town: The Bells all ringing on the joyful Occaſion.

While the Pomp was making its orderly Proceſſion, the Guns, which were firing in every Part of the Town, were anſwered in mild and rumbling Peals by the Artillery of Heaven, which introduced the plentiful and refreſhing Showers that ſucceeded a very dry Seaſon.

After his Majeſty's Commiſſion was opened and exhibited in the Council Chamber, and the uſual Ceremonies were concluded, the vaſt Multitude of Spectators without, expreſs'd, in their united Shouts, an unuſual Joy and Elevation of Soul. The Troops and Regiment diſcharged their Duty in triple Vollies; and again were the Cannon roaring at the Batteries in every Part of this Town, and at Charleſtown, by which the Country was acquainted with the joyful Proclamation.

From the Court-houſe his Excellency was conducted by his civil and military Attendants, to a ſplendid Entertainment at the Bunch of Grapes, and after Dinner to his own pleaſant Seat.

The Afternoon was ſpent in firing and other Expreſſions of Joy; and the Evening concluded with a Bonfire and Illuminations.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 27.

From Woodbury Creek on the other Side of the River we hear, that on Sunday Night laſt a Servant Man belonging to one Tateham, got out of Bed about Midnight, and telling a Lad who ſlept with him that he was going a long Journey and ſhould never ſee him more, he went into the Orchard and hanged himſelf an a Tree: But it ſeems the Rope broke in the Operation, and towards Morning he found himſelf alive upon the Ground to his no ſmall Surprize. He then went and hid himſelf in the Barn among ſome Straw, for ſeveral Hours, while his Maſter and the reſt of the Family were ſearching and enquiring after him to no Effect. At length having procured a better Rope, he hanged himſelf again in the Barn, and was there accidentally found by the Maid in the Afternoon: When he was cut down there appeared no ſign of Life in him, nor were any Means uſed to recover him; but by that Time the Coroner and his Inqueſt were got together and come to View his Body, he was upon his Legs again, and is now living.
